

The A. F. of L. World House
has been given an annual and additional amount of money for funding labor according to the industry, business, and political and economic interests of itself in the trade union movement.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR

WEEKLY NEWS SERVICE

SUPPLEMENT

WILLIAM GREEN, President

WASHINGTON, D. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1950

GEORGE MEANY, Secretary-Treasurer

A Good Buy

Samuel Jones said:
"God bless our American institutions. May they grow better day
by day."

Middle Income Housing Bill Clears First House Hurdle

Spence Committee OKs
Bill as Senate Group
Neers Action

Washington.—The Administration's moderate income housing bill cleared a first major hurdle on the House Banking and Currency Committee reported it favorably for a vote of 11 to 6.

Rep. Bruce Spence of Kentucky, chairman of the committee, announced that he would go before the House Committee on the bill and ask the measure be sent to the floor for debate and a vote.

Planning New Housing Program

The Senate Banking and Currency Committee is slated to act on a companion bill in the Senate soon. The Administration's moderate income housing bill cleared a first major hurdle on the House Banking and Currency Committee reported it favorably for a vote of 11 to 6.

Rep. Bruce Spence of Kentucky, chairman of the committee, announced that he would go before the House Committee on the bill and ask the measure be sent to the floor for debate and a vote.

Secretary William F. Chazy of the Chicago Federation of Labor (left) and John H. W. Brown of the Chicago Federation of Labor (right) are seen in a moment of conversation. John H. W. Brown, Chicago Federation of Labor, Chicago, is seen in a moment of conversation.

Civil Liberties Campaigner Praises AFL Freedom Fight

By ARNOLD HEICHMAN
New York Correspondent for
AFL News Service

New York.—They call him the "Other Civil Liberties" fighter, the one who is not a member of the American Civil Liberties Union, but who is fighting for the rights of the American people. He is William F. Chazy, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, who is fighting for the rights of the American people.

Chazy is a man who is not a member of the American Civil Liberties Union, but who is fighting for the rights of the American people. He is William F. Chazy, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, who is fighting for the rights of the American people.

Green Blasts New 'Lynch-Labor' Law

Heads Bond Drive

Assails Robertson Bill
As Anti-Trust Club
Against Unions

Washington.—AFL President William Green blasted the Robertson Bill as a "lynch-law" method of destroying labor unions by criminal action.

Green said that the Robertson Bill was a "lynch-law" method of destroying labor unions by criminal action. He said that the Robertson Bill was a "lynch-law" method of destroying labor unions by criminal action.

Green and Murray Back UJA Appeal

New York.—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Murray Friedman, chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, are seen in a moment of conversation.

AFL Says Co-op Housing Will Aid Young Couples Pay Off Mortgage

Washington.—Young married couples need a place to live, and the American Federation of Labor is helping them. The AFL is helping them by providing them with a place to live.

The AFL is helping them by providing them with a place to live. The AFL is helping them by providing them with a place to live.

AFL Opposes Liquor Advertising Ban

Washington.—The AFL opposed a proposed ban on liquor advertising in the United States.

BULLETIN!

Judge Refuses to Drop
Contempt Charges
Against UMW

Washington.—Federal Judge Keith refused to drop contempt charges against the United Mine Workers Union (UMW).

Judge Keith refused to drop contempt charges against the United Mine Workers Union (UMW).

Radio Directors Guild Settles Contract Dispute

New York City.—Agreement was reached between the National Association of Broadcasters and the Radio Directors Guild.

18 in Philly Receive First Union Pension

Philadelphia.—Eighteen members of the Philadelphia Union received their first pension payment.

Latent Fights Excise Tax

New York.—President Richard F. Walsh of the AFL International Association of Machinists (IAM) is seen in a moment of conversation.

Open Protestant N.Y. Labor School

New York.—A Protestant labor school is being opened in New York City.

Radio Directors Guild Settles Contract Dispute

New York City.—Agreement was reached between the National Association of Broadcasters and the Radio Directors Guild.

18 in Philly Receive First Union Pension

Philadelphia.—Eighteen members of the Philadelphia Union received their first pension payment.

Latent Fights Excise Tax

New York.—President Richard F. Walsh of the AFL International Association of Machinists (IAM) is seen in a moment of conversation.

Open Protestant N.Y. Labor School

New York.—A Protestant labor school is being opened in New York City.